GOVERNMENT OF GOA

Department of Home
Home General Division

Notification

4/3/87-HD(G)

Whereas, the film producers and their authorised agents have approached the Government for grant of No Objection Certificates for shooting of their films in the State of Goa;

And whereas, the sites selected by such film producers come under the jurisdiction of different Departments of the Government and therefore the film producers or their authorised agents find it difficult to obtain requisite No Objection Certificates, as the different Departments follow different procedures for issuing the same;

Now, therefore, the Government of Goa has decided to issue such No Objection Certificates through Single Window and hence issue following guidelines governing grant of such No Objection Certificates, namely:—

(1) The film producers or their authorised agents desiring to have film shooting in the State of Goa shall submit three sets of application in a form appended hereto to the concerned District

Collector. The concerned Collectorate shall in turn refer one set to the Police Department for comments and one set to the concerned Department, under whose jurisdiction and care the property where the shooting is scheduled to be carried out lies. The concerned Collectorate shall then obtain required No Objection Certificates from the Police and the concerned Department within 7 days. If the concerned Department does not respond within 7 days, the No Objection Certificate will be deemed to have been granted. The concerned Collectorate shall thereafter issue final No Objection Certificate within 10 days from the date of application.

(2) The film producers or their authorised Agents applying for the film shooting shall pay the following fees in the Collector's office:—

(i) Fees of Rs. 6,000/- per day and Rs. 3,000/- per half day for shooting on the selected site.

(ii) The Police protection may be made available to the Film producer or his authorised agent at the shooting site on payment of following charges:—

Category of Police Officer	Rate of charges payable (Per day of 5 hours or per night of 4 hours)
(1) Inspector	Rs. 500/-
(2) Sub Inspector	Rs. 450/-
(3) Assistant Sub-Inspector	Rs. 350/-
(4) Head Constable	Rs. 250/-
(5) Constable	Rs. 230/-

The aforesaid charges shall be doubled where the duty is more than the above specified hours per day/night. The party seeking for Police Protection shall make an estimate of quantum of Police Force required. This will then be checked by the Police Department, and if a different quantum of deployment is required, then the Police Department shall indicate it in its report. On the basis of Police report, charges shall be deposited by the Film Producer or his authorised agent in advance, in the concerned Collectorate.

(3) No film shooting shall be done in the prohibited/restricted areas.

(4) The spot or venue where film shooting is to be carried out on a particular day should be intimated to the District Magistrate concerned well in advance, particularly, where it is within the Municipal areas where there is heavy traffic.

(5) No screening of objectionable scenes shall be done.

(6) It shall be ensured that while film shooting, no nuisance, disturbance or obstructions are caused to the general public at the various tourists places and other suburbs.

(7) Only static loudspeakers (box type) shall be used and their volume kept low by using minimum decible (audio) of music, so as to prevent noise pollution.

(8) The District Magistrate may withdraw the No Objection/permission granted, in case of violations of any of the conditions mentioned above.

(9) The film producers or their authorised agents shall undertake to pay the amount for any damages caused while shooting.

The above guidelines will come into force with effect from the date of issue of this Notification.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Goa.

A. Mascarenhas, Under Secretary (Home).

Panaji, 4th September, 2001.

“26. Purchase and sale of shares.—The National Bank may subscribe to, or purchase or sell stocks, shares, bonds or debentures of, or invest in the securities of, any institution or class of institutions concerned with agriculture and rural development which the Board may approve subject to such terms and conditions as it may deem fit.”.

14. Insertion of new section 27A.—After section 27 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

“27A. Loans to State Government, undertakings, etc.—The National Bank may make loans and advances to any State Government or a corporation owned or controlled by the State Government or to any other person or class of persons, as may be approved by the Board, repayable on the expiry of a fixed period not exceeding twenty-five years from the date of making of such loans and advances and subject to such terms and conditions, as may be approved by the Board, for the purpose of development of infrastructure facilities for promotion of agriculture and rural development.”.

15. Amendment of section 28.—In section 28 of the principal Act, for sub-section (3), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

“(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), no guarantee or security referred to therein shall be required in cases in which the Board, for reasons to be recorded in writing, decides that no such security or guarantee is necessary in respect of a scheduled bank, a State co-operative bank or any person or class of persons, specifically approved by the Board or in respect of any scheme or class of schemes, having regard to the nature and scope of the scheme or schemes for which accommodation is proposed to be granted by the National Bank.”.

16. Amendment of section 29.—In section 29 of the principal Act, after sub-section (2), the following shall be inserted, namely:—

“(3) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law for the time being in force, where a liquidator is appointed for winding up a borrowing institution, it shall be the duty of the liquidator to forthwith pass on to the National Bank the sums recovered by the borrowing institution or the liquidator, as the case may be, in repayment or realisation of the loans and advances refinanced either wholly or partly by the National Bank to the extent the refinance is outstanding and the National Bank shall be entitled to enforce the securities held by the borrowing institution in trust for the National Bank as if every reference to the borrowing institution in any contract, security or other document obtained by borrowing institution is a reference to the National Bank and accordingly, the National Bank shall be entitled to recover the balance sums due under such loans and advances from the constituents of borrowing institution and any discharge given by the National Bank to such constituent shall be a valid discharge and the liquidator shall, on demand made by the National Bank, deliver to it all such contracts, securities and other documents, for due enforcement thereof by the National Bank.

Explanation.— For the purposes of this sub-section, the word "liquidator" shall include liquidator or a provisional liquidator or any person or authority entrusted with the duty of liquidating the borrowing institution.

17. Substitution of new sections for section 30.— For section 30 of the principal Act, the following sections shall be substituted, namely:—

"30. Direct loans.— The National Bank may, in exceptional circumstances to be recorded in writing by the Board, by itself or in association with other financial institutions or scheduled banks, make loans and advances, otherwise than by way of refinance to any person or class of persons or body corporate, on such terms and conditions, including security and repayable within such period not exceeding twenty-five years, as the National Bank may deem fit.

30A. Bills rediscounting.— The National Bank may rediscount bills of exchange and promissory notes made, drawn, accepted or endorsed by any company or body corporate concerned with agriculture and rural development presented by a scheduled bank, a State co-operative bank, State land development bank, regional rural bank or any other institution or class of institutions approved by the Board."

18. Substitution of new section for section 32.— For section 32 of the principal Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

"32. Issue of guarantees.— The National Bank may guarantee, subject to such directions as may be issued by the Board, from time to time, deferred payments in connection with the purchase of capital goods or for any other purpose for giving effect to the provisions of this Act, due from any person or class of persons, whether incorporated or not."

19. Amendment of section 33.— In section 33 of the principal Act, for the words "under this Chapter with a borrowing institution", the words "under this Act with a borrower" shall be substituted.

20. Substitution of new section for section 34.— For section 34 of the principal Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

"34. Power to call for repayment before agreed period.— Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any agreement or arrangement, the National Bank may, by notice in writing, require any borrower or assisted person to whom it has granted any loan or other financial assistance including grants, to discharge forthwith in full, the loan or other financial assistance, including grants, as the case may be,—

(a) if it appears to the National Bank that false or misleading information in any material particulars was given in the application for the loan or other financial assistance; or

(b) if the borrower or the person has failed to comply with any of the terms of the contract or arrangement with the National Bank in the matter of loan or other financial assistance, including grants; or

(c) if there is a reasonable apprehension that the borrower is unable to pay its debts or that proceedings for liquidation may be commenced in respect thereof; or

(d) if for any reason it is necessary so to do, to protect the interests of the National Bank."

21. Amendment of section 35.— In section 35 of the principal Act, for sub-section (1), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

"(1) The National Bank shall have free access to all such records of a borrower seeking to avail of any credit or other facilities from the National Bank under this Act and also to all such records of any person seeking to avail of any credit or other facilities from such borrower, perusal whereof may appear to the National Bank to be necessary in connection with the providing of finance or other assistance to such borrower or the refinancing of any loan or advance made to such person by the borrower."

22. Insertion of new section 37A.— After section 37 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

"37A. Prohibited business.— (1) The National Bank shall not make any loans or advances under section 30 or make any grants under this Act to any person or body of persons of which any of the directors of the National Bank is a proprietor, partner, director, manager, agent employee or guarantor or in which one or more directors of the National Bank together hold substantial interest:

Provided that this sub-section shall not apply to any borrower if any director of the National Bank—

(a) is nominated as director of the Board of such borrower by the Government or a Government Company as defined in section 617 of the Companies Act, 1956 or by a corporation established by any other law;

1 of 1956.

(b) is elected on the Board of such borrower by virtue of shares held in the borrower organisation by the Government, or a Government company as defined in section 617 of the Companies Act, 1956 or by a corporation established by any other law, by reason only of such nomination or election, as the case may be.

Explanation.— For the purposes of this sub-section, "substantial interest", in relation to a borrower, means the beneficial interest held by one or more of the directors of the National Bank or by any relative of such director as defined in clause (41) of section 2 of the Companies Act, 1956, whether singly or taken together, in the shares of the borrower, the aggregate amount paid-up on which either exceeds five lakhs of rupees or five per cent. of the paid-up share capital of the borrower, whichever is lesser.

1 of 1956.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1)—

(a) shall not apply to any borrower, if the National Bank is satisfied that it is necessary in the public interest to enter into business with that borrower and entering into any kind of business with such borrower shall be in accordance with and subject to such conditions and limitations, as may be approved by the Board;

(b) shall not apply to any transaction relating to the business entered into prior to the commencement of the National Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development (Amendment) Act, 2000, and all such business and any transaction in relation thereto may be implemented or continued as if that Act had not come into force;

(c) shall apply only so long as the conditions precedent to such disability as set out in the said sub-section continue.'

23. Amendment of section 38.— In section 38 of the principal Act,—

(a) in clause (iii), for the words "make grants", the words "make loans or advances or grants" shall be substituted;

(b) after clause (iii), the following clauses shall be inserted, namely:—

"(iv) may provide technical, legal, financial, marketing and administrative assistance to any person engaged in agriculture and rural development activities;

(v) may provide consultancy services in the field of agriculture and rural development and other related matters in or outside India, on such terms and against such remuneration, as may be agreed upon;

(vi) may perform the functions entrusted to or required of the National Bank by any other law for the time being in force; and

(vii) do any other kind of business or undertake any other kind of activity which the Central Government or the Reserve Bank may authorise.".

24. Insertion of new sections 38A to 38C.— After section 38 of the principal Act, the following sections shall be inserted, namely:—

38A. Promotion of subsidiaries.— The National Bank may, in consultation with the Reserve Bank, promote, form or manage or associate itself in promotion, formation or management of companies, subsidiaries, affiliates, societies, trusts or such other association of persons, as it may deem fit, for the purpose of carrying out its functions under this Act.

38B. Securitisation of debt.— Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the National Bank may—

(a) create one or more trusts and transfer loans and advances granted by it, with or without the securities, to such trusts, for consideration;

(b) set aside loans or advances held by the National Bank and issue and sell securities based upon such loans or advances so set aside in the form of debt obligations, trust certificates of beneficial interest or other instruments, by whatever name called, and act as a trustee for the holders of such securities.

38C. Exemption from compulsory registration.— Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) of section 17 of the Registration Act, 1908,—

16 of 1908.

(a) any instrument in the form of debt obligations or trust certificate of beneficial interest or any other instrument, by whatever name called, issued by the National Bank or the trust created by it to securitise the loans granted by it and not creating, declaring, assigning limiting or extinguishing any right, title or interest to or in immovable property; or

(b) any transfer of such instruments referred to in clause (a), shall not require compulsory registration.”.

25. Substitution of new section for section 40.— For section 40 of the principal Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

“40. Deposits and investments.— (1) The National Bank may invest its funds in promissory notes, stocks or securities of the Central Government or keep the moneys deposited with the Reserve Bank or with any agency of the Reserve Bank or with a State co-operative bank or a scheduled bank.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) or section 30A, the National Bank may, for beneficial investment of its surplus funds, rediscount bills of exchange or promissory notes arising out of bona fide trade and commercial transactions and also lend repayable at call or short notice to a scheduled bank or any financial institution approved by the Reserve Bank, or invest in certificates of deposit and other instruments or schemes as may be approved by the Board.”.

26. Amendment of section 44.— In section 44 of the principal Act, in sub-section (2), for the words “making of grants”, the words “making of loans or advances or grants” shall be substituted.

27. Amendment of section 45.— In section 45 of the principal Act, for the words “and such other Funds”, the words “and other Funds” shall be substituted.

28. Amendment of section 47.— In section 47 of the principal Act, for clause (ii), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

“(ii) after the expiry of the said period of fifteen years, the Board shall, after making provision for the Fund referred to in clause (i), disburse or spend the balance of the surplus in such manner as may be approved by the Board.”.

29. Insertion of new section 52A.— After section 52 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

“52A. Agreement with National Bank on appointment of directors to prevail.— (1) Where any agreement entered into by the National Bank with a company or a body corporate while granting loans and advances, provides for the appointment by the National Bank of one or more directors of such company or body corporate, such provisions and any appointment of directors made in pursuance thereof shall be valid and effective, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Companies Act, 1956 or in any other law for the time being in force, or in the memorandum, articles of association or any other instrument relating to the company or body corporate, and any provision regarding share qualification, age-limit, number of directorship, removal from office of directors and such like conditions contained in any such law or instrument aforesaid, shall not apply to any director appointed by the National Bank in pursuance of the agreement as aforesaid.

(2) Any director appointed as aforesaid shall—

(a) hold office during the pleasure of the National Bank and may be removed or substituted by any person by order in writing of the National Bank;

(b) not incur any obligation or liability by reason only of his being a director or for anything done or omitted to be done in good faith in the discharge of his duties as a director or anything in relation thereto;

(c) not be liable to retirement by rotation and shall not be taken into account for computing the number of directors liable to such retirement.”.

30. Amendment of section 60.— In section 60 of the principal Act, in sub-section (2),—

(i) for clause (e), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

“(e) the manner of election of directors under clause (f) of sub-section (1) of section 6;”;

(ii) clauses (f) and (h) shall be omitted.

31. Repeal and saving.— (1) The National Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development (Amendment) Ordinance, 2000 is hereby repealed.

Ord.
4 of 2000.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken under the principal Act as amended by the said Ordinance, shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the principal Act as amended by this Act.
